"Mr. Brown's Lectures fill an important place, for which we have no other book. The style is clear, the spirit is kind, the reasoning eareful, and the argument conclusive; and atthough authority shapes and successfully seems to after a place of wording. We are persuaded that this book will render more good than any book of Sermons or Lectures that have been published in this reincreenth Century."

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1859. THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, now more than eighteen years old, which was the first journal in the world that appeared regularly on an imperial eight page sheet at as low a price as two cents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 20,000 enterptions, respectfully solicits its share of patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth to receive it asks especially the patronage and active favor of RRPUBLICANS—of those who hate all forms of oppression, and desire that every rational being shall be free to employ his faculties in such innocent manner as he shall deem best—of those who would extend Liberty and limit Slavery; but it further appeals likewise to all who look and labor for the return of National thrift, plenty, prosperity, through the Protection of American Industry by wisely discriminating duties on Imports—all who favor National Progress through internal development and melioration rather than by external aggression and extension—all who would rather have the National resources devoted to the construction of a railroad to the Pacific than to the purchase or conquest of Mexico, Nicaragua or Cuba—all who would retrench radically our present inordinate Federal expenditures by abolishing or immensely reducing the Army and Navy, and expending the money thus saved on works of benificence which will endure to bless our children—all who profamily realize that "RIGHYEOUSNESS exalteth a nation," and that no real advantage can ever accure to any person or community from acquisitions or encesses achieved by means which contravene the laws of Eternal Right. The free allottenut of limited portions of the Public Lands to Actual Settlers thereon, and every hopeful plan intended to diminish the sum of human unisery from dearth of employment of inadequate recompand our express ypina dearing them to help themetelves—must command our express ympachy and cooperation.

During the past year, THE TRIBUNE has provided itself with THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, now more than eighteen avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining facts. We appeal, then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of THE TRIBUNE would conduce to the political, intellectual and moral well-being of the Republic, to sid us in effecting such increase. As we employ no traveling solicitors of subscriptions, we ask our present patrons in every locality to speak to their neighbors and friends in our behalf; we shall gladly too their neighbors and friends in our behalf; we shall gladly grateful to those who would receive and read a specimen copy of one of our editions, and shall be particularly grateful to those who may send us such names from post-offices at which we have now no subscribers. Whatever additions may thus be made to our circulation shall be paralleled by increased efforts and expenditures to make our issues more valuable and useful than they have higher to been.

THE N. Y. DAILY TRIBUNE. THE N. Y. DAILY TRIBUNE.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sandays excepted).
